Edinburgh School of Foreign Tongues

(GOUIN'S SERIES METHOD),

CLASSICAL AND MODERN LANGUAGES,

3 COATES CRESCENT (late of 122 GEORGE STREET).

Glasgow Branch—At the CHRISTIAN INSTITUTE.

NINTH YEAR, 1901-1902.

Director: MONSIEUR LOUIS LATOUR,

LICENCIÉ ÈS LETTRES,

PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH AND SPANISH OF THE FRENCH UNIVERSITY (ACADÉMIE DE PARIS).

ON the SERIES METHOD, Foreign Languages (BOTH CLASSICAL AND MODERN) are learnt in the most rapid, interesting, and easy way.

The SERIES METHOD (for a full exposition of which the reader is referred to GOUIN'S book, The Art of Teaching and Studying Languages) has the paramount advantage of being the most recent of all, and therefore an à priori improvement on all previous written or conversational systems.

The SERIES METHOD—as continually improved by Monsieur Louis Latour during his eight years' daily experience with British students—may now claim to be the best method for learning languages and the best systematised approximation to—in fact, QUITE AS GOOD for most British people as—residence in the country itself. This is ratified by the numerous Testimonials given by some of the 1200 STUDENTS that have been attending the Edinburgh School and its Glasgow Branch from May 1896 to May 1901.

RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

For a letter not exceeding 4 oz., . . 1d.
For every additional 2 oz. . . . ½d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 foot in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all Foreign Countries and some British Possessions is 2½d. per half ounce; but there are many British Possessions to which the letter rate is only 1d. per half ounce.

A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, is returned to the writer.

Unpaid letters from British Possessions to which penny postage applies are chargeable 2d. per half ounce. Unpaid letters from all other places are chargeable 5d. per half ounce. Partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per half ounce.

On unpaid and partially paid letters for places abroad, double the deficiency is chargeable on delivery.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English, French, or German.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

POST CARDS.

The address, and the sender's name and address, and a request for return in case of non-delivery, but nothing else, may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the front. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and ¾ inch broad, bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps. If any of these rules be infringed, the card ceases to be a post card, and is treated as a letter, and liable to the usual charges on delivery.

A private card becomes a post card when it has a halfpenny stamp affixed to its face. It must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the official post cards. The maximum size must correspond as nearly as may be to the size of the inland official card, and the minimum size must not be less than $3\frac{1}{4} \times 2\frac{1}{4}$ inches. The rules stated in the preceding paragraph also apply to private cards with one exception, viz. that which relates to cutting and altering. The essential feature of the private post card is that it must be prepaid. A private card posted unpaid is charge able on delivery with double postage.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery the letters would be delayed if the whole mail we dealt with indiscriminately, post cards may l kept back until the next despatch or delive (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of 5½ (thin) and 6d. (thick) for every 10; reply cards, double rates.

Foreign.—Post cards, 1d. each (or inland pc cards paid the foreign rate), and reply post card 2d. each, may be sent to any of the countries the Postal Union. Plain cards without a inscription cannot be sent abroad as single reply post cards. Unpaid post cards from plac abroad are charged 2d. each. Partially paid car are charged double the deficient postage within limit of 2d.

Private post cards bearing adhesive stamps the value of 1d. and private reply cards wi adhesive stamps of the value of 1d. on each h may be sent as post cards to places abroad, p vided they are in conformity with the offic post cards.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted sing or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one ha penny; but a packet containing two or more reg tered newspapers is not chargeable with a higl rate of postage than would be chargeable on a bc packet of the same weight.

The Postmaster-General will (not in cons quence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, a as an act of grace), subject to the rules for t time being, give compensation up to a maximu limit of £5 for the loss and damage of Inla Registered Packets upon which this fee has be paid, in addition to the postage. Subject to t same rules he will grant compensation beyond £ and up to a limit of £120, upon payment of a f in addition to the postage and the ordinary regi tration fee. The contents of the postal packet must be cked and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, rapper, or cover, and if it be desired to secure mpensation for damage to a postal packet ther than a parcel), such postal packet must ear the words 'Fragile, with Care,' on the face the cover above the address.

The packet must be marked with the word Registered,' and with the amount of the fee roper to the value up to which the sender desires secure compensation, thus:—

Registered, 2d.; Registered, 3d.; and so on.

The registered Parcel Post will be available for atches and jewellery. Money may also be sent a registered parcel, but no compensation will given in respect of the loss or damage of such rcel or of any of its contents.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will given in respect of a postal packet containing y article which may not under the regulations force for the time being be lawfully sent by the st by which it is in fact sent; or a packet (other an a letter) containing any money; or a letter ntaining any money, unless it be enclosed in a gistered letter envelope provided by the Post-aster-General, and—

(a) If containing coin, unless the coins are packed and enclosed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.

(b) If containing any bank note, unless the name of the bank of issue, and number and amount, and (where necessary) the date of the note be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.

(c) If containing any postal order, unless the amount and number of such order be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.

(d) If containing any bill of exchange, bond, coupon, or other order or authority for the payment of money or security for money, unless particulars sufficient to identify the document be supplied to the Postmaster-General when required.

No compensation will be given in respect of mage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft uit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing y article of an exceptionally fragile character, any other article which from its nature cannot ith reasonable safety be sent by post; or con-ining a perishable article where the damage ises from natural decay, and the postal packet is livered without undue delay; or (other than a rcel) which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.' But in all such cases compensation will be given r the loss of the postal packet or of any article ntained therein.

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is arked 'Fragile, with Care,' the Postmaster-eneral reserves the right to select for such stal packet a route on which postal packets are ither received by nor delivered from trains in otion.

In every case it must appear that the loss or damage did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, and that it occurred while the postal packet was in the post.

The compensation given will in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

Compensation for damage to the contents of a registered packet will be strictly in accordance with the fee paid and the amount of damage done, no matter what the original total value of the contents may have been.

The Postmaster-General will in every case either of loss or damage, if he thinks fit, reinstate the contents of a postal packet instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

Where compensation is given for the loss of a postal packet, or of any article contained in a postal packet, the Postmaster-General will reserve the right to retain and dispose as he thinks fit of the postal packet or of the missing article, in case it should subsequently come into his hands.

In no case will the Postmaster-General give compensation for injury or damage consequential upon the loss, damage, or delay of a postal packet or any article contained therein.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to give compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

Claims for Compensation.

Every application for compensation should be made within seven days after the date on which the postal packet was posted, and the certificate of posting should be produced when required.

Where the application relates to the damage of the packet, or to the damage or loss of any article contained therein, the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. When the complaint is that the contents have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application.

Where a postal packet when delivered bears signs of injury, the recipient should call attention to the fact of such injury at the time of delivery, and, if possible, open the postal packet in the presence of an officer of the Post Office.

The compensation payable in respect of a registered parcel will be in substitution for and not in addition to any compensation which would have been payable in case the parcel had not been registered.

This scheme of registration and compensation does not apply to Foreign and Colonial registered postal packets.

The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

The term 'paper money' means and includes notes of the Bank of England and Ireland or of any bank of issue in the United Kingdom, and notes current in any Foreign State or British Possession; money orders and postal orders; unobliterated postage or revenue stamps; exchequer bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, credit-notes which entitle the holder to money or goods, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not; bonds, coupons, and securities for money, whether negotiable or not. The term 'watch' means a small timepiece intended to be carried in the pocket or on the person. The term does not include the works of a watch if of no intrinsic value apart from the workmanship. Watch cases of gold or silver are included within the definition of jewellery. The term 'jewellery' means and includes gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state (not electro or other plated goods), watches and jewels, diamonds and precious stones, and any article of a like nature, which, apart from the workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value. The term 'United Kingdom' includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Inland Parcels.—For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him. The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

Parcels for Abroad.—Particulars as to compensation for loss or damage between certain British Colonies, dependencies, and foreign countries can be learned at any Post Office. The rate for insurance between the United Kingdom and certain British Colonies and dependencies is 5d. for every £12 up to £120.

RE-DIRECTION.

Letters, book packets, post cards, and newspapers, are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, but if re-posted later than the day after delivery are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each direction. But re-directed parcels are subjected to additional postage if the original a corrected addresses are both within a delive from the same Post Office.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directe should be taken back to the Post Office to dealt with as a registered letter.

The Post Office does not undertake the direction of letters, etc., for a person temporar leaving his home, unless the house be left uni habited, or of letters, etc., addressed to hote boarding-houses, or lodgings.

The principle of free re-direction, which adopted throughout the Postal Union for lette post-cards, newspapers, book packets, and sam packets, does not exempt from additional posta letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for t first transmission, are re-directed to a country which the postage is higher than that origina prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at t inland rate, sent from one place to another in t United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to place abroad, should have additional stamps affix to it representing the difference between the land and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise t difference will be charged on delivery. The sa treatment would be adopted with a letter packet fully prepaid for the inland service o foreign country or colony and re-directed to t United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter packet coming here from abroad and re-direct would not be chargeable for re-direction unl the postage from the place of origin to the fi destination were higher than the postage fr the place of origin to this country. Lett originally posted unpaid, and letters or pack posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently directed, though not chargeable for re-directi are subject to the ordinary charge of double deficient postage on delivery.

Letters for commissioned officers in the ar or navy, on actual service, are exempt from a charge for re-direction, and also to the us regulations as to time of reposting. Letters, e returned to the senders that they may rectify complete the address, are not, when re-post treated as re-directed, but as liable to fr postage.

Notices of removal and applications for lett etc., to be re-directed must in all cases be d signed by the persons to whom the letters addressed; printed forms of notice can be tained at the local office and the General P Office, or from the postman. A separate no must be filled up for parcels. Persons who about to change their residence should infc their correspondents beforehand of their intenti

No person living within the town free delive unless he rent a private box, can obtain his lett at the General Post Office.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value, ½d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., 1½d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., 2½d., and so on. No separate stamps can be purchased, or less than two adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the department recommend that the name or initials of firms, etc., be perforated through the stamps. Postmasters are instructed not to purchase such stamps.

No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, or any article having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, nor can any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, any living creature, except bees, or anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. The sender of any such packet is liable to prosecution.

The transmission by letter post of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, etc., to many countries in the Postal Union is, as a rule, prohibited (such articles may, however, be sent to some foreign countries); and to Bulgaria, Cape of Good Hope, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Norway, Servia, Transvaal, and United States of America—anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, New Zealand, and Queensland—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain and Victoria—jewellery is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand it; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered are kept from one to three days, according to circumstances, before being returned, unless addressed 'to be called for,' when they are retained one month, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

In any case in which the name of the Payee is not known, the Remitter must make a note to that effect on the front of the Requisition Form, and give such description of the Payee as will be sufficient to identify him or her to the Paying Officer. The Order will then be issued at the Remitter's risk.

As the advices of Orders drawn on the British Colonies, and the countries, etc., referred to below, have to circulate through the London Office, and also the Chief Office of the paying country, such Orders should be taken out in suffi- cient time to allow of the despatch of the relative Advices, so that the presentation of the Orders and the arrival of the Advices may be simultaneous.

Every deposit must be entered at the time in the depositor's book by the person receiving it, who will also sign and date stamp the entry. A depositor should carefully examine his book before leaving the office, and see that the entry is correct.

In addition to the receipt in the book, the depositor will receive an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department, London.

When the balance due in an ordinary account, inclusive of accumulated interest and dividend, exceeds £200, interest on £200 only is allowed. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is added to the principal.

INSURANCES.

The following examples show various ways in which insurances may be effected:—

The life of a male or female between 24 and 25 years of age may be insured for £10—

By an annual payment throughout life of	£0 4 4
By an annual payment to the age of 60 of	0 4 10
By a single payment of	4 9 0

A sum of money may be insured on the attainment of the age of 55, 60, or 65 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single or annual premium, and a sum of money may be insured at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums not exceeding £25 will be granted without a medical examination, upon production of satisfactory evidence as to health; but in such cases, if the insurant should die before the second premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium, and no more, will be paid to his representatives; and if he should die after the payment of the second premium and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured, and no more, will be paid to his representatives. In either of these cases, however, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the death of the insured person was caused by accident, the full amount insured will be paid. In any case, immediately after the payment of the third premium, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance.

Persons proposing to insure for more than £25 must undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner appointed by the Postmaster-General, the cost of which is paid by the department. And persons proposing to insure for sums not exceeding £25 may undergo a medical examination, if they so desire, by payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. to the medical examiner. In all cases of insurance granted after medical examination, the insured person is entitled to the full benefit of insurance immediately the policy is granted.

No one life can be insured for less than £5, and no insurance above £5 will be granted to persons under 15 years of age.

If, after having paid not less than two annual premiums, an insurant should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall determine to be the surrender value will be returned.

Permission is granted to persons over 30 years of age, who have been insured 5 years, to reside in any part of the world free of any extra premium.

ANNUITIES, IMMEDIATE AND DEFERRED (OLD AGE PAY).

Premiums, with examples.

The sums charged for the purchase of Immediate Annuities or Deferred Annuities, sometimes called Old Age Pay, vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the Annuity is to depend, and in the case of Deferred Annuities with the number of years to pass before the commencement of the Annuity, and with the conditions of the contract as to the return or non-return of the purchase money.

The following are examples of the various classes of annuities and the cost:—

A male aged 65 can purchase an Immediate Annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	£9 13 4
A female aged 70 can purchase an Immediate Annuity of £1, payable half-yearly, for	8 14 2

When the condition of a Deferred Annuity contract is that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the Annuity is to depend before the commencement of the Annuity, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives; and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the Annuity wishes to discontinue the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned:—

A female aged 24 may purchase a Deferred Annuity of £1, to commence on her reaching the age of 60, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until she reaches the age of 60 of	£0 4 4
Or by a single payment of	5 4 11

When the condition of a Deferred Annuity contract is that no part of the purchase money shall, in any event, be returned:—

A male aged 24 may purchase a Deferred Annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 54, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an annual payment until he reaches the age of 54 of	£0 4 4
Or by a single payment of	3 19 10

Although in the case of annuities granted under the non-returnable scale no part of the purchase money paid can be returned, yet if the annuity is being purchased by annual instalments, and the purchaser is unable to keep up the payments to the end of the period for which the annuity is deferred, the money paid is not lost, as an exchange contract can be granted for such an amount of annuity, to commence at the time fixed in the original contract, as the payments made may justify.

Joint Annuities.

Any two persons may purchase an Immediate Annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

Life Certificates.

Before any half-yearly instalment of an annuity can be paid, the person on whose life the annuity depends must be proved to be alive on the date the instalment becomes due. A form of life certificate for this purpose is provided by the department.

Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words, and limited as in the case of letters. The name of the place and country of designation in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, when so written by the sender, whatever their length.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge, all the names and addresses are included; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for transmission by the routes of the North Atlantic cable companies.

Telegrams may be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country no charge for postage is made. If intended for delivery in another country and has to be forwarded over sea, a charge for postage is collected; and if the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter a fee of 5d. is collected from the sender.

STAMP DUTIES.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties, according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Stamps to be on the face of the instrument.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to distinct matters to be stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, to be charged in respect of it also.—§ 4 (b).

Facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty to be truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May 1888, and every arrangement for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument to which a stamp is appropriated is not duly stamped except with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

Duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is payable on estate duty from the date when the duty is due, or if the duty is payable by instalments from the date when the first instalment is due.

Small estates.—Interest is not charged on fixed duties of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months of death.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

Composition for 'Death Duties.'

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

and 17 Vict. c. 51; 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22; 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10–12, 14, and 15; and 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 18 (1).)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the capital value, when the successor is competent to dispose (Finance Act 1894, §18), after allowance of the necessary outgoings, and in other cases as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personalty (§ 1).

The RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY are the same as on LEGACY DUTY.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Succession from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18).
2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty in respect of the same acquisition (ib.).

Duty on successions in arrear—interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable. (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9.)

Note. — Forms of the accounts for legacy and succession duties may be obtained at the Estate Duty Office, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £170,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £25,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK, affords a still further substantial Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 2 to 3½ per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation, for which purpose the Company's system of accepting repayment by instalments is specially commended to Householders. The Rates for Instalment Loans have recently been reduced.

Borrowers do not, in virtue of obtaining Loans, become Members of the Company, and they incur none of the responsibilities of Shareholders. No Commission or Fines charged.

Messrs. William Cook & Sons,
Edinburgh.

18th August 1900.
27 High Street, Elie.

Gentlemen,—I have much pleasure in stating that the double decker Patent Oven you erected for me in Elie even Years ago is still doing well. It has never required any repairs except the furnace. No better n can be used for a quick seaside trade, where Roasts and dishes are being wanted at all hours, its action being tinuous. I shall be pleased to show it to any one contemplating the erection of a new oven, as I can thoroughly mmend it.—Yours truly,

William Braid.

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened Twenty Years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—licit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as mestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable me ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. ose only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible ngers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to plore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, ng many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show itors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.

TORCHES

For PROCESSIONS.

T. C. BARLOW, Glasgow, begs to draw attention to his newly invented TORCHES, which burn with a large flame, specially for Torchlight Processions, and are specially suitable for the use of Fire Brigades, Military and Gymnastic Clubs, Railway, Army, Town Authorities, Masonic, Students', and other Processions, etc. etc.

As is well known, the Pitch Torches let fall during their use red-hot drops and burning particles of tow, and they give out a very objectionable smoke, which damages clothes, flags, and decorations, besides being troublesome to both carriers and spectators.

The price of the newly-invented Torches does not exceed that for Pitch or Resin Torches, and they have superior brilliancy, and burn a longer time if a fine night.

No. 1 burns about 1¼ to 1½ hours, Price 1/- each. No. 2 burns about 2 to 2¼ hours, Price 1/6 each.

No. 3 burns about 2½ to 2¾ hours, Price 2/- each.

Therefore, for every purpose where a bright, easily portable light is required, such as Torchlight Processions, Picnics, Railway Service, Open-air Works, Barges, Sledging Parties, and Ice Sports, T. C. BARLOW can thoroughly recommend the employment of his newly invented Torch, specially for Masonic Processions.

OFFICE—57 ROSE STREET (WEST), GLASGOW.

At the same time T. C. BARLOW would mention his "VAUXHALL" or BUCKET VARIEGATED GLASS ILLUMINATION LAMPS, AND SHIELDS OF ALL NATIONS, for decorations for interior or exterior.
